

Front End Developer

Build and maintain robust and scalable user interfaces for some of the UK's top brands.

Skills and Experience

- Excellent at the fundamentals; HTML, CSS and JavaScript
- Knowledge of React, Angular 2+ and TypeScript
- An understanding of how to make a website performant
- Ability to implement mobile optimised / responsive web designs
- Knowledge of accessibility standards
- Experience using build tools such as webpack
- Understanding of behaviour-driven development (BDD) requirements
- Experience of development within an agile delivery process
- Experience of using source control / Git

Responsibilities

- Build and maintain web site and web application user interfaces based on BDD requirements
- Deliver best-in-class HTML5/CSS3/JavaScript front-end code for multiple browsers, platforms, and devices, including smartphones and tablets
- Develop standards-compliant code with consideration for usability and accessibility
- Work with back end developers to integrate HTML5/CSS3/JavaScript into ASP.NET environments
- Apply industry standards and UI principles to coded pages, screens and states
- Implement analytics tags and solutions
- Build pages that promote search engine optimization
- Represent the company in a professional manner in client meetings and through all communication
- Ensure that all development processes are followed and that source code and project documentation is accurately maintained
- Be responsible for self-development and to participate in the personal development process
- Carry out all duties in accordance with company policies and standards